

“TO PEOPLE WHO ARE SEEKING TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE...”

... We are all surrounded by coaches, sponsors and mentors – so how are you affecting or being effected by those around you?

To mark the launch of the 2011 Mentoring Program “Navigating for Success” we invite you to join us for a luncheon interview. Two of Melbourne’s most successful female Directors from the finance industry (Top 100 ASX) will share their insights and experiences on the differences between coaches, sponsors and mentors”.

“Nora and Paula are currently the two most successful professional female directors to have emerged from the finance industry in Melbourne. It should be a really fascinating discussion to hear their thoughts on sponsors, coaches and mentors, plus a range of other issues” – Stephen Mayne, Shareholder Activist & Founder of Mayne Reports.

Nora Scheinkestel (Speaker) is currently a director of three large Melbourne based companies: Telstra, Pacific Brands and Orica. She also serves on the board of AMP Ltd and two of its subsidiaries. A former investment banker with experience at CRA, Macquarie Bank, Chase AMP and Deutsche Bank, she’s also an associate professor at the Melbourne Business School and consults on corporate governance. Earlier directorship roles include Mayne Pharma, North Ltd, Newcrest and Paperlinx.

Paula Dwyer (Speaker) is the newly appointed chairman of Tabcorp Holdings and a director of Suncorp Group, Foster’s Group and Astro Japan. She is the Deputy Chair of Baker IDI Heart and Diabetes Institute and a member of the Takeovers Panel. She is a former investment banker with past appointments serving as director with RACV, David Jones, Promina, deputy director of Emergency Services Superannuation, VicSuper and the Government Superannuation Office.

Stephen Mayne (Interviewer) is a Walkley Award winning journalist who founded crikey.com, publishes the corporate governance ezine maynereport.com and is Australia’s best known shareholder activist. Over the past 18 months, Stephen has been an outspoken critic of the lack of females in senior corporate positions in Australia, raising the issue at numerous AGMs and through the media and other public events. He has also researched and published extensive reports tracking female directors of public companies.
