

Dear Mr Stephen Mayne,

The Financial Management Association of Australia (FMAA), is a national student organization with branches in Melbourne, Sydney and Brisbane. The FMAA to date has become the largest professionally focused commerce student society in each of the markets in which we operate.

On behalf of the Financial Management Association of Australia,

We take great pleasure in inviting you to:

FMAA GRADUATE CORPORATE COCKTAILS

Date: Monday 19th March

Venue: Treasury Restaurant & Bar
394 Collins Street, Melbourne

Time: 6.30pm – 9.00pm

The Graduate Corporate Cocktails is the first formal function of the year and provides an excellent opportunity for FMAA student members to meet with sponsor firm representatives to discuss prospective employment and opportunities for Graduate work. Guests in attendance at the event also include representatives of the university and FMAA Board of Directors.

We would be extremely privileged to have you speak at our event. As a graduate of the commerce faculty at The University of Melbourne, we feel that you can provide a realistic example of what students can make of their degree. From your success with Crikey.com incorporating your reputation as an exciting journalist and astute businessman, to your involvement in politics, you have constantly challenged corporate norms as highlighted in the Walkley award winning series targeting shareholder rights in AGMs. Your activism for greater corporate governance in Australia is greatly respected and relevant in today's environment of corporate failures. You have undoubtedly gathered invaluable knowledge and expertise through your ventures, and we would be most honoured if you would be willing to share some of your insight and experience from these roles with us at our forthcoming event.

We hope that you will be able to join us for this event.
