Mr Sleiman Majdoub
Company Secretary
Strickland Metals Ltd
Suite 3.03, Level 3, 220 St Georges Terrace
Perth, WA, 6000

By email at 4pm WST time to info@stricklandmetals.com.au on October 15, 2026

Dear Mr Majdoub,

Please accept this signed letter as my formal consent to self-nominate for the board of Strickland Metals (STK) at the upcoming AGM to be held in Perth on November 26, 2026. I purchased 8,334 Strickland Metals shares on October 12 which are registered as follows:

Stephen David Mayne
PO Box 925
Templestowe 3106

Please include the following CV and platform in the notice of meeting:

Stephen Mayne, 57. BCom (Melb). GAICD. Stephen is a Walkley Award-winning business journalist and Australia's best known retail shareholder advocate. He was the founder of www.crikey.com.au, publishes the corporate governance website www.maynereport.com, writes regular columns for The Intelligent Investor and co-hosts The Money Café podcast with Alan Kohler. His governance experience includes 8 years as a City of Manningham councillor in Melbourne's eastern suburbs, a 4 year term (2012-2016) as a City of Melbourne councillor where he chaired the Finance and Governance committee, almost 5 years on the Australian Shareholders' Association board and asking questions at more than 1,400 ASX-listed company AGMs and EGMs since 1998.

Stephen nominated for the Strickland Metals board out of concern that it has once again chosen to run a physical AGM in Perth, the world's most isolated major city, which makes it very difficult for interstate and offshore shareholders to participate. Strickland Metals, which had a market cap of $150 million on October 15 and has almost 4,000 shareholders, should be offering hybrid AGMs with both a physical location and the ability for shareholders to vote and ask questions live online during proceedings. Stephen is also concerned that the Strickland Metals board has a history of doing selective placements to sophisticated investors without offering its retail shareholders a chance to participate on the same terms through a Share Purchase Plan. Offering SPPs after placements should be standard practice but the culture amongst many Perth-based companies is to prioritise the clients of the brokers handling the placement, whilst ignoring retail shareholders, who don't pay commissions to brokers. A vote for Stephen will send a message to the board to include retail shareholders in the company's next capital raising and send a message to the wider market about the need for better treatment of retail shareholders in capital raisings. Contact Stephen by email at Stephen@maynereport.com of via www.maynereport.com.

Yours Sincerely

Stephen Mayne
Strickland Metals shareholder